SENATOR DICKINSON: We need it somewhere. I don't care where you have it.

SENATOR MARSH: In other words, if it gets to our desks this morning there wouldn't be any delay necessary. We still could take the bill up as soon as the information gets to our green books.

SENATOR DICKINSON: Do you want to change the motion?

SENATOR MARSH: I think he misstated your motion.

SENATOR DICKINSON: Well I probably didn't state it clearly myself. They made it for me. Don't blame them, blame me. Yes, I would move that we pass over this until we get the information on our desks.

PRESIDENT: There's no objection, it's so ordered.

CLERK: Read title to LB 635. Mr. President, there are Committee amendments by Senator Rasmussen's Government Committee.

PRESIDENT: Senator Rasmussen.

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: Mr. Chairman, members of the body. This is a bill that will correct the statutes. It will bring the Nebraska Bicentennial Commission back to what the state Centennial Commission could do. The words, as far as the Committee amendments, are corrective words. I would ask for your support for same.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion? The question is the adoption of the Committee amendments. Record your vote. Record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays.

PRESIDENT: The amendment is adopted. Senator Hasebroock.

SENATOR HASEBROOCK: Mr. President, members of the Legislature. This bill was requested by the Bicentennial Commission. As Senator Rasmussen said, it's corrective in nature. It makes it possible for them to do some of the things that they weren't able to do under the very restrictive bill which was apparently passed in error some time ago.

This has the blessing of the Auditors Office. I've talked to the Attorney General. I think this is corrective and necessary. It would be helpful for the Bicentennial to have the funds that they need for some of the commemorative items that they're selling. They can do with them as they see fit. It's got to work through the general fund of the state.

I move that the bill be advanced to E & R initial.

PRESIDENT: You've heard the motion. Any further discussion? The question is the advancement of the bill. Record your vote. Record, Mr. Clerk.
